

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Kristin Mallory, Senior VP of Academic and Student Affairs
Kristin.mallory@bridgevalley.edu
304-205-6614

Kristin L. Mallory Named to National Council of Instructional Administrators

Montgomery, WV – Kristin L. Mallory, Ed.D, Senior Vice President of Academic and Student Affairs at BridgeValley Community and Technical College, has been named as the Region 2 Representative to the National Council of Instructional Administrators. As the Region 2 Representative, Dr. Mallory will represent West Virginia, Delaware, the District of Columbia, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia.

The National Council of Instructional Administrators (NCIA) is an affiliate council of the American Association of Community Colleges and serves as the voice for instructional administrators and instructional administration. As such, NCIA serves as the national voice for the involvement of community college instructional administrators in policy planning and decision making.

“I am very honored to be named as the Region 2 Representative,” said Dr. Mallory. “NCIA is a wonderful organization that helps analyze and disseminate information on community college initiatives. At BridgeValley Community and Technical College, we aim to be a student-centered, solution-focused institution. Working with NCIA will assist us in this goal.”

BridgeValley Community and Technical College was founded on March 20, 2014 and serves a six-county region including Fayette, Raleigh, Nicholas, Clay, Putnam and Kanawha counties. The college operates two campuses in Montgomery and South Charleston, along with the addition of the new Advanced Technology Center. BridgeValley awards one-year certificates and two-year associate degrees in many fields including civil, mechanical and electrical engineering technology, business and health management, nursing, dental hygiene, business technology, medical assisting, diesel technology, computer information technology, and welding.

###