BridgeValley to Recognize Honor Scholars and Employees on Friday
May 10 ceremony held at the Charleston Coliseum and Convention Center

(South Charleston, WV) - BridgeValley Community and Technical College will acknowledge honor scholars and employees at an award and recognition ceremony on Friday, May 10.

With opening remarks by BridgeValley President Dr. Eunice Bellinger, the college will celebrate students and staff who have made a difference on campus or achieved educational excellence.

Awards will be given to staff receiving regional, state and national recognition, those who have continued their education, accumulated a minimum of 20 years of state and institutional service or who are retiring. Nine students completing the Job Corps dental assisting program will be pinned and Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society graduates at both campuses will receive their cords, as well as student graduates in BridgeValley's Sigma Kappa Delta English Honor Society, Phi Beta Lambda Honor Society and Sigma Tau Nu Nursing Honor Society. Honor tassels will be provided to students graduating summa cum laude (3.75 or higher GPA), magna cum laud (3.50-3.74 GPA) and cum laude (3.25-3.49 GPA).
