BridgeValley Community and Technical College to Open Dem 2 Brothers Location
February 4

(South Charleston, WV) - BridgeValley Community and Technical College is hosting a ribbon cutting for the new campus location of Dem 2 Brothers on February 4.

“Dem 2 Brothers’ Montgomery location will support the GRID’s [Generate, Renew, Innovate and Design] community education activities,” said BridgeValley’s Vice President of Community Education Laura McCullough. “Artists and industrial crafters will be able to take a break from honing their skills in various maker spaces or from learning how to grow their start up business, to grab a sandwich with other creative people. BridgeValley is very excited to have additional food service in town so close to our operations.”

Who: BridgeValley Community and Technical College

What: Ribbon Cutting for BridgeValley’s Dem 2 Brothers location with Mayor Greg Ingram

When: Monday, February 4 at noon

Where: BridgeValley CTC Montgomery Campus, 800 2nd Avenue, Montgomery, 25136

Known for its barbecue dishes, Dem 2 Brothers operates two food trucks and restaurants in Montgomery and London. It was featured on Food Network’s “Southern Fried Road Trip,” a show hosted by Jamie and Bobby Deen in 2015.

Dem 2 Brothers will be open from 6:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday with a menu including breakfast burritos, sandwiches, chicken breasts, ribs, pulled pork, hot dogs and hot bologna. Additionally, coffee will be available.
